

Visual Arts Grading

Every student will receive a participation grade and a conduct grade from each Enrichment class. These grades are on an E, S, N or U scale.

E for Excellent

S for Satisfactory

N for Needs Improvement

U for Unsatisfactory

Art Participation Grading Criteria

E – You tried your best, stayed on-task and followed all the directions.

S – You did a good job but did not follow all the directions and spent some class time off task.

N – You did not try your best, several project directions were not followed or you were repeatedly off-task.

U – You made little or no effort to complete the project following directions.

2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th grades will also receive a project grade once a six weeks. Students will receive the project grade based on how well they have completed the project objectives.

Art Conduct Grading Criteria

E – You followed each of the Art Classroom rules every time you came to Art Class.

S – You had to be reminded to follow the Art Class rules but corrected your behavior with the first reminder.

N – Several Art Rules were not followed and you needed several reminders to correct your behavior. We conferenced in time out and your parents were contacted.

U – You did not attempt to correct your behavior after all consequences were given and you may have been given an office referral.
